

FOLK-CAROL CONCERT

Twelfth Night – Saturday Jan 5th – 7.00 pm

PAUL CHURCH

TR19 6TY – parking in pub car park opposite.

Come, sing and take part in some unusual, uplifting, funny
- and moving - folk-carols from our past and present.

The concert is Free - but a collection will be taken for the Humanitarian Aid Relief Trust whose founder, Baroness Caroline Cox, will be present to describe her work helping refugees and victims of modern slavery in Sudan, Nigeria, Myanmar and Syria.

Mulled wine will be available at the interval.